RED LETTER SALE.

It is the custom of a great many Clothing Houses, when the end of a season comes, to take all the old chestnuts that have laid on their shelves since the days of the "bull teams," pile them on a counter and offer them at "great bargains." Now, with us it is different. At the end of a season our buyer goes to market and there buys just exactly the same goods he bought at the beginning of the season for about one-half the amount he paid for them at that time Our buyer is now in market and has shipped us per express as large a stock of flannel and percale shirts and underwear as any other house in Helena carries at any season of the year. Do not fall into that common error of thinking that because goods are cheap they are no good, for a single examination will convince you that you are mis-

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The senatorial investigation into the dressed beef and transportation industries arrived at the point this morning where it became necessary to resort to vigorous means or acknowledge the whole affair a farce. G. T. Swift, the millionaire dressed beef dealer, had been subpensed for the third time and it was reported he agreed to appear this morning. He did not come. P. D. Armour, on whom a summons was served, stated he could not come at the hour named, but would let the commissioners know when he would be able to attend. Secretary George T. Whereas, Philip Armour, Nelson Morris, Louis F. Swift, Frank E. Vogel, J. S. Newman and Jacob Meyer having been duly and lawfully summoned to appear as witnesses before this committee, have repeatedly refused to obey the same, it is ordered that the facts be reported to the chairman of the senate of the United States at its next session.

A reporter for the Associated Press called on Mr. Armour and asked for an interview. Mr. Armour made the following statement:

"The reason we did not appear before the senatorial committee was that we knew we could not expect fair treatment from the hands of Senator Vest, who is notorious and on record as opposed to the Wyoming's Convention.

We affirm the principles of the national democratic party as set forth in the plat-form adopted at the last national demo-cratic convention. Standing on the verge of statehood and about to assume the maniand against the growth of crops. There has also been frost, injuring crops everywhere but at Dunvegan. The woods are being destroyed along the south of Pexo by a fire which has never ceased all summer. The fires have driven out the game and destroyed the berries, which are an important source of the food supply of the Indians, both in summer and and winter. There is likely to be more hunger than ever this coming winter, and unless rain falls the fires will be still more destructive before winter sets in. The hunger than ever this coming winter, and unless rain falls the fires will be still more destructive before winter sets in. The Indian natives of the country are dying out very fast, but the Crees, who are coming from Lesser Slave lake and Edmonton, are increasing.
